

WEST SCRANTON

Howell-Fellows Wedding Last Evening. Supper at Simpson Church—Entertainment and Social.

The home of ex-Mayor John H. Fellows, at 418 South Tenth street, was the scene of a brilliant nuptial event last evening, when John W. Howell, of the Washington street, son of ex-City Controller Edward Howell, and Miss Nell Fellows were married by Rev. J. B. Sweet, D. D., presiding elder of the Binghamton district of the Wyoming conference of Methodist Episcopal churches. The wedding party formed upstairs and at 8 o'clock the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, came down, dressed in a beautiful gown of silk net over tulle, with chiffon trimmings, and carrying a bunch of white chrysanthemums.

George Fenner, of Ashley; Mr. and Mrs. George Carlton, of Dalton; Mrs. Sarah Benjamin, of Nesquehoning; The array of wedding gifts included silverware, cut-glass, china, linen, furniture, brae-a-brac, etc., among them being a Haviland china set from the groom's father, cut-glass water set from the groom's mother, and a very valuable diamond ring from the groom's father. The bride was accompanied by her father, and together with innumerable other gifts from the relatives and friends.

They were preceded by the flower girls, Marguerite Fellows, sister of the bride, and Amy Lillian Hartley, niece of the groom, each dressed in white organdy, and carrying baskets of flowers. Then came the maid of honor, Miss Lola J. Fellows, sister of the bride, wearing a gown of blue mousseline de soie, over blue silk, with white trimmings. She carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Fisher, a cousin of the bride, wore yellow silk organdy, trimmed with white, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The ushers were Art E. Morse, of this city; Theo. Ellis, of Wilkes-Barre, and Gus Weis, of New York. As the party entered the front parlor, to the strains of Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Charles Hartley, sister of the groom, they were met by the groom and his attendant, Ely Harris, who entered from the second parlor. The party formed in front of a huge bank of palms, ferns and evergreens, and there the officiating clergyman tied the nuptial knot. During the ceremony Mrs. Hartley played a soft strain, and as the happy couple left the room, Mendelssohn's march was being played.

The interior decorations throughout were in keeping with all the details of the event, and the spacious house was filled with guests. After congratulatory wishes were extended, the wedding supper was served and enjoyed by several hundred people. Among the guests from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Overfield, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mevry, Miss Jean Ellis, of Mesopotamia; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gray and Miss Mary Gray, of Lanesville; Mr. and Mrs. John Farrar, and Miss Louise Farrar, of West Plinston; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Irving, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayward, of Kingston; Theo. Ellis, of Wilkes-Barre; Gus Weiss, of New York.

Being Helped Himself Wishes to Help Others.

The papers were never so filled with advertisements of remedies that will cure every known disease, as they are today; these are invariably accompanied by letters from people, testifying in the strongest terms to the virtue and merit of the particular preparation advertised; but because so much is claimed for the medicine, it has come to the point where most readers regard such testimonials as pure "fakes" and made up out of whole cloth.

We are glad, however, to vouch for the reliability of the following from Mr. Wm. Lichtenwalter, proprietor of the largest printing house in Canton, Ohio, regarding the Pyramid Pile Cure, for which nothing is claimed, except that it will cure any and every form of Piles.

"For several months past I have received so many inquiries from sufferers asking if my testimonial is authentic, that I am inclined to send in a bill to you for postage and stationery. It is now ten years since I was first troubled, and my ailment is as clear and clean as any man who never had piles, although I suffered with protruding, bleeding and internal piles for twenty-seven years. I will not attempt to detail the agonies I suffered, but too happy to say I believe I am cured, after two years of evidence.

"What will cure one man will sometimes cure another; whether it was the Pyramid Pile Cure that cured me, I cannot say. My ailment was cured from piles for two years after using your treatment. I leave sufferers to draw their own conclusions.

"I will answer any communication that a sufferer may ask, and will refer to any business house, bank or manufacturer of Canton, Ohio, concerning my identity, among whom I have lived for forty-eight years."

Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists for fifty cents a package, or will be mailed to any address by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., upon receipt of price.

Drop this firm a card asking for their little book describing the cause and cure of piles.

Ladies' Guild held their annual event.

The rectory, Rev. E. J. McHenry, presided, and made a few preliminary remarks. Instrumental selections were rendered by Mrs. Selbert, John Miller, Bernard Moll, and the Lewis brothers.

The vocalists were Misses Alberta and Amanda Johns, Harold Johns, Miss Helen Markwick, D. Gilbert Johns and Mrs. Morgan. Recitations were given by May Dorsey, Maud Weathering, Alberta Johns and Amanda Johns, and Benjamin Hughes gave a pleasing whistling solo. Refreshments were served after the entertainment.

Ladies' Aid Supper.

The patronage accorded the Ladies' Aid society at their supper in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church last evening was sufficient to show that these events are not only popular, but essential to the social side of church life, and tend to increase interest not only in the work of the society, but also to demonstrate the ability of these ladies along culinary lines.

Four tables were spread, and from 6 to 8 o'clock hundreds of people were served with the best foodstuffs of the season. The tables were in charge of the following:

Table No. 1—Mrs. A. B. Ridgway, Mrs. William Quirk, Mrs. E. Owens.

Table No. 2—Mrs. George Peck, Mrs. Joseph Peck, Miss Rachel Peck.

Table No. 3—Mrs. William Long, Miss Verma Rose, Miss Lucy Long.

Table No. 4—Mrs. H. C. McDermott, Mrs. F. C. Hall, Miss Lulu Leeder, Miss Marion Hall.

The others who assisted in the management and preparations were Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. Seth Wrigley, Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Mrs. William Lever, Mrs. McCormick, John Randolph and A. B. Ridgway.

Night School Attendance.

The attendance at the night schools opened in buildings No. 31, No. 18, No. 22 and No. 13, has far exceeded expectations, and is probably the largest ever enrolled in the history of night schools in this city. There is plenty of room at all the buildings, however, for all who desire to attend.

At No. 31 building one hundred and seventy-five pupils have been enrolled, and at the other buildings the attendance is very large. The apparent desire of the breaker boys and factory girls to obtain knowledge in the common English branches, through the medium of the night schools, should be encouraged more than it is, and many others induced to attend who are now out of the fold and spend their evenings on the streets and in places of amusement.

Police Court Cases.

Bert Anderson, of 904 South Keyser avenue, who was picked up by the police Wednesday evening and locked up, was fined $3 in police court yesterday morning.

James B. Goodman, of Linden street, and Franklin avenue, who was found wandering around in a helpless condition Wednesday night, paid a fine of $2.

Mrs. Ann Llewellyn, an old offender, whom the police had to carry into the station house, was committed to jail for twenty days on default of a fine of $5.

We sat at the table—the alderman, the doctor and I. The subject of dieting was brought up in conversation. "No man," said the alderman, "can tell me what I ought to eat without knowing my habits of life, my temperament and all—is that not so, doctor?" "Perfectly right," said he, "what suits your stomach may not fit mine, and yet nine men out of ten are presumptuous enough to tell you what you ought to eat." "Yes," said I, "they don't appreciate that there is just as great a difference between two men's stomachs as there is between their brains. Overwork some men's stomachs and they will easily respond to the task, just as some men's brains can take care of endless details, but the majority will break down with the overload." "Indigestion," said the doctor, "is not a disease but an admonition—it is the red light that signifies danger. It is the language of the stomach to prepare for serious trouble if allowed to persist. Bitters and alcoholic medicines are poor means for stimulating the stomach to perform a larger share of work than it ought. The effect on the stomach is like the spur to the weary horse—it weakens him and shortens his life. A rational treatment," continued the doctor, "is moderate eating of wholesome foods, and only those which the person likes. Occasionally, say once a week, a dinner pill should be taken which should be entirely of vegetable ingredients—like Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—that will not purge, but act gently on the liver, stomach and bowels. To my mind the main dependence for curing permanently the indigestion which has become chronic—the 'heart-burn,' the sour eructations, the worst cases of dyspepsia—is that alterative extract made from medicinal herbs that Doctor Pierce calls his 'Golden Medical Discovery,' for it contains no alcohol to overstimulate the stomach, but it simply goes to work in the right way—correcting the liver, purifying the blood and assimilating the food so that the stomach takes up its labors with activity and refreshed powers. It fills the arteries with the pure, rich, red blood of health. It tears down, and carries off old, inert and half-dead tissues and replaces them by new. It builds firm, healthy flesh. It makes the muscles strong and elastic and steadies and tones the nerves. It cures debility and weakness of every description."

W. Walter McGloshen, of Reinbeck, Iowa, writes: "I took only four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and two vials of his 'Pleasant Pellets,' and these remedies did me a world of good. I am thankful for your kind advice and praise the medicines highly. Will recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to all my friends as the best medicines ever made for the troubles for which they are recommended. There is nothing equal to them for stomach troubles."

C. P. Spencer, of Plano, Okla., wrote: "I can hardly express my thanks for the benefit I have received from taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' They worked like a charm in my case. Am in better health now than for some time, and will not fail to recommend your medicines to my suffering friends. I hope you will receive my thanks for the good your medicine has done me."
